Legal Resources

By: Steven F. Despain, District Director
SBA Wyoming District Office

CASPER - New interactive tools and web services are available from the Small Business Administration. Legal issues are a big part of starting and running a business. Go to the SBA web site for legal resources at <http://www.businesslaw.gov> for answers to your questions.

Want to learn about payroll taxes, electronic filing, record keeping and more from IRS instructors? View the workshops online or order free CD-ROMs at businesslaw.gov. Find the Department of Labor's laws and regulations that apply to your business and learn how to comply. Find applicable federal and state regulations, compliance assistance, and best practices that can save time, money and record keeping headaches.

Is there a new regulation about to be enacted that will affect your business? Want to know more about the new regulation or do you want to comment on the regulation? Go to businesslaw.gov to track the proposed regulations and voice your opinion.

SBA provides legal resources for businesses at <http://www.businesslaw.gov>. Take advantage of these resources and learn about legal resources available to you. For more information, <http://www.sba.gov/wy> or call us at 307-261-6500.
